

SOME DESCENDANTS OF JOHN AND FRANCES (SKEY) WEBB

EDWARD J. DAVIES

This article developed from my work on the ancestry of Frances Webb, a matrilineal ancestor of Queen Elizabeth II and a granddaughter of John and Frances (Skey) Webb of Church Stanway, Gloucestershire.<sup>1</sup>

The following account includes John and Frances's children, grandchildren and great-grandchildren that I have been able to trace. Among their descendants are some nineteenth century agricultural labourers<sup>2</sup> who share eighteenth century ancestry with Queen Elizabeth II.

Except where noted otherwise, details of baptisms, marriages and burials are taken from (photographic copies of) the relevant original parish registers.

Further research could undoubtedly uncover more details, and I would be interested to learn of any additions. I can be contacted at:

[See <http://www.guiseley94.freemove.co.uk/genealogy.htm> for current contact details.]

First Generation

JOHN WEBB of Church Stanway, Gloucestershire, land surveyor, was baptised on 11 Jun 1715 at Stanway, Gloucestershire, died on 18 Aug 1791 and was buried on 21 Aug 1791 at Stanway. He made a joint will, dated 4 Oct 1789, with his wife Frances and after her death added a codicil on 16 Jul 1790. The will was proved in the Prerogative Court of Canterbury (PCC) on 31 Mar 1792. John married on 21 Aug 1737 at Winchcombe, Gloucestershire, FRANCES SKEY, who was baptised on 22 Mar 1719/20 at Winchcombe, died on 9 Apr 1790 and was buried on 15 Apr 1790 at Stanway.

Children:

- + 1 MARY WEBB (1738-1829).
- + 2 JOHN WEBB (1740-1787).
- 3 ELIZABETH WEBB, bap 8 May 1743, Stanway;<sup>3</sup> m ____ GIBBS.<sup>4</sup>
- + 4 THOMAS WEBB (1746-1783).
- + 5 FRANCIS WEBB (1749-1814).
- + 6 EDWARD WEBB (1751-1828).
- 7 SARAH WEBB,<sup>5</sup> bap 24 Nov 1754, Stanway.
- + 8 GEORGE WEBB (1760-1840).

<sup>4</sup> Will of John and Frances Webb (1789): "... our daughters Mary Attwood and Elizabeth Gibbs...". A Francis Gibbs married an Elizabeth Webb at St. James, Westminster, on 16 Jan 1763, but the bride was then said to be of that parish. Elizabeth is not named in the will of her brother Francis.

<sup>5</sup> A Sarah Webb witnessed the marriage of Giles Attwood and Mary Webb in 1779, and a Sarah Webb married a John Parslow of Hartpury at Stanway in 1783. The will of John and Frances (Skey) Webb does not mention their daughter Sarah.

Second Generation

- 1 MARY WEBB<sup>6</sup> was baptised on 27 Aug 1738 at Stanway, died on 28 May 1829 at Melchet Park, Wiltshire<sup>7</sup> and was buried on 3 Jun 1829 at St. Martin, Salisbury, Wiltshire. Her will, dated 14 Aug 1827, was proved in the PCC on 2 Sep 1856, many years after her death. She married on 30 Sep 1779 at Stanway, GILES ATTWOOD<sup>8</sup> of Eynsham, Oxfordshire, who was buried on 8 Mar 1816 at Eynsham.<sup>9</sup> His will, dated 5 Feb 1816, was proved in the PCC on 11 Nov 1816.
Children:<sup>10</sup>
- 9 SARAH ATTWOOD, b Chipping Norton, Oxfordshire,<sup>11</sup> bap there 10 Aug 1780,<sup>12</sup> living in 1860;<sup>13</sup> m 28 Jun 1827, Eynsham, JOHN GRANDIN<sup>14</sup> of Spencer Lodge, Battersea, Surrey, d 1 Nov 1857,<sup>15</sup> will dat 13 Aug 1857, with a codicil, pr PCC 18 Dec 1857.
- + 10 SELINA ATTWOOD (1784-1861).
- 2 JOHN WEBB of Stanway, land surveyor, was baptised on 7 Sep 1740 at Stanway, died on 1 Nov 1787<sup>16</sup> and was buried on 4 Nov 1787 at Stanway. He married on 13 Oct 1761 at Stanway, ELIZABETH ALYE, who was buried on 19 Jun 1806 at Stanway.<sup>17</sup>
Children:<sup>18</sup>
- 11 MARK WEBB, bap 6 May 1764, Stanway.
12 MARY WEBB, bap 4 Jan 1767, Stanway.
13 ISAAC WEBB, bap 7 Aug 1768, Stanway.
- + 14 FRANCES WEBB (1771-1847).
15 JOHN ALYE WEBB, bap 7 Jun 1775, Stanway, bur there 15 Jan 1796.
- 4 THOMAS WEBB of Halford, Warwickshire and of Warminster, Wiltshire,<sup>19</sup> land surveyor, was baptised on 3 Apr 1746 at Stanway, died on 11 Dec 1783<sup>20</sup> and was buried on 16 Dec 1783 at Stanway. His will, dated 3 Jul 1782, was proved in the PCC on 15 Jul 1784. He married on 21 Dec 1774 at Stanway, SARAH PLUMB.
Children:
- 16 THOMAS WEBB, bap 28 Feb 1776, Halford.
17 SARAH WEBB,<sup>21</sup> bap 2 Mar 1779, Halford, living 1812.
- + 18 RICHARD WEBB<sup>22</sup> (1781-1837) (see under Selina Attwood, no. 10).
- 5 FRANCIS WEBB of Stow-on-the-Wold,<sup>23</sup> Gloucestershire and of Salisbury, land surveyor, was baptised on 26 Mar 1749 at Stanway, died in Oct 1814 at Salisbury,<sup>24</sup> and was buried on 10 Oct 1814

<sup>16</sup> An abstract of his monumental inscription (MI) at Stanway, in which John is called the "eldest son of John and Frances Webb" is in Brian Frith, ed., Ralph Bigland: Historical, Monumental and Genealogical Collections Relative to the County of Gloucester (The Bristol and Gloucestershire Archaeological Society, 1989-95), p1153.

<sup>18</sup> Will of Francis Webb (1812): "...my late Brother John Webb's Children and the Widow or Widows of any or either of his deceased sons...".

<sup>19</sup> Thomas's will describes him as "late of Halford in the County of Warwick but now of Warminster in the County of Wilts Land surveyer". Halford was the residence of Thomas's wife at the time of their marriage.

<sup>21</sup> Will of Francis Webb (1812): "...my Niece Sarah Webb daughter of my said late Brother Thomas Webb...".

<sup>22</sup> Will of Francis Webb (1812): "...my said Nephew Richard Webb Son of my late Brother Thomas Webb...".

<sup>24</sup> Francis probably died on 2 Oct 1814, though the date is given as 9 Oct in one source. This is discussed in note 13 of the Genealogists' Magazine article (see note 1).

at St. Martin, Salisbury. His will, dated 1 Aug 1812, with a codicil dated 13 Jul 1814, was proved in the PCC on 27 Oct 1814. He married on 18 Dec 1769 at Stanway, MARY GARRITT.

Child:

+ 19 FRANCES WEBB (1775-1862).

6 EDWARD WEBB of Stow, land surveyor, was baptised on 9 Jun 1751 at Stanway, died on 6 Sep 1828 at Stow<sup>25</sup> and was buried there on 10 Sep 1828. He married ELIZABETH, who died on 8 Dec 1814<sup>26</sup> and was buried on 10 Dec 1814 at Stow.

Children:<sup>27</sup>

+ 20 ELIZABETH WEBB (bur 1810).

+ 21 NICHOLAS WEBB (1778-1851).

22 JOSEPH WEBB, bap 26 Oct 1787, Stow, bur there 29 May 1788.

+ 23 ANN WEBB (bap 1789).

+ 24 REBECCA WEBB (1791-1831).

+ 25 SARAH WEBB (1795-1844).

26 _____ WEBB, another daughter of Edward Webb, who died after Francis Webb's will was written (1812) but during her father's lifetime.

8 GEORGE WEBB of Winchcombe, land surveyor, was baptised on 23 Nov 1760 at Stanway, died on 6 Mar 1840 at Winchcombe<sup>28</sup> and was buried on 11 Mar 1840 at Beckford, Gloucestershire. Administration of his estate was granted in the PCC on 15 Jul 1840. He married on 31 Jan 1788 at Beckford, SARAH YEEND, who died on 14 Nov 1848<sup>29</sup> and was buried on 20 Nov 1848 at Beckford. Administration of her estate was granted in the PCC on 31 May 1849 and again on 26 May 1854.

Children:<sup>30</sup>

27 SARAH HARPER WEBB, bap 19 Feb 1789, Stanway,<sup>31</sup> bur 10 Jul 1789, Beckford.

28 HARPER WEBB,<sup>32</sup> bap 16/17<sup>33</sup> Oct 1790, Stanway, bur 2 May 1810, Beckford.

+ 29 MARY ANN WEBB (1792-1853).

+ 30 HARRIET WEBB (bap 1800).

31 FRANCIS WEBB, bap 26 Mar 1802, Beckford, bur there 25 May 1802.

32 JOHN WEBB of Bessborough Place, Westminster, Middlesex, joiner, b 4 Aug 1804,<sup>34</sup> Beckford,<sup>35</sup> bap there 19 Aug 1804, d ca 1853,<sup>36</sup> admon PCC 14 Feb 1854; m CHARLOTTE, who was living in 1881.<sup>37</sup>

<sup>25</sup> The Gloucester Journal of Saturday 20 Sep 1828 states that Edward died on "Saturday", presumably referring to 6th September rather than 13th, as his burial in the Stow PRs is dated 10 Sep.

<sup>26</sup> Gloucester Journal, 12 Dec 1814.

<sup>27</sup> Death duty registers, Francis Webb (IR 26/630, f654):

"Edw<sup>d</sup> Webb's 4 Daurs

Viz Sarah Woodman

Ann Henson

Rebecca Cox

The other Child of Edw<sup>d</sup> Webb died in her father's life time"

I have not yet found the marriage of Edward Webb and Elizabeth, so it is possible that Elizabeth and the unidentified daughter were children of Edward Webb by an earlier wife. The entry for Nicholas's baptism in 1778 confirms that Edward Webb's wife at that time was Elizabeth.

<sup>28</sup> Death certificate. The death duty registers (entry for Francis Webb, IR 26/630, f655) confirm that the George Webb who died on this date was Francis's brother.

<sup>30</sup> Will of Francis Webb (1812): "...my Brother George Webb and... the three Children of the said George Webb...". The death duty registers (IR 26/630, f655) name these three children as Mary Ann Dunn, Harriett Powell and John Webb.

<sup>34</sup> His date of birth is given in his baptism entry.

<sup>36</sup> He was living at the time of the 1851 census (HO 107/1479, f942) but dead by 1854 when administration of his estate was granted.

<sup>66</sup> There was also a Frances Webb of Stanway who married a Charles Hawker on 28 Apr 1787 at Stanway. However, Frances, daughter of John and Elizabeth (Alye) Webb would have been only sixteen at that time if she was baptised soon after birth. It is also recorded that Frances (Webb) Chidley was aged 76 at the time of her burial in 1847, so it seems much more likely that Frances, daughter of John and Elizabeth (Alye) Webb, married James Chidley than Charles Hawker. However, there may have been some connection between John and Frances (Skey) Webb and Frances (Webb) Hawker, because John and Frances's will gives "unto Frances the Wife of Charles Harker [sic] of Southam" five pounds and Frances's wearing apparel (though a codicil by John annulled the legacy of five pounds).

<sup>67</sup> She was possibly the "Alicia" Chidley, daughter of James and Frances, who was baptised on 16 Feb 1800 at Stanway.

<sup>93</sup> An Eliza Clifford married a Benjamin Bissell at Handsworth, Staffordshire, on 19 Nov 1827, but both parties were then said to be of that parish. Further research might establish whether or not the Handsworth marriage was that of the Eliza "Bozzle" named in the death duty registers.

<sup>96</sup> The death duty registers (IR 26/630, f655) state that Nicholas had ten children. Nicholas's short will is not very informative and the only children he names are his unmarried daughters Mary and Caroline Webb. No baptisms of the children stated in census returns to have been born at Hatherop were found in the registers of that parish, though the parentage of Thomas, James, Richard and Anne is clear from other evidence, as noted below.

<sup>103</sup> 1871 census returns, Coln St. Aldwyn, RG 10/2649, f62 (though the 1851 census returns (HO 107/1969, f153) give Edward's place of birth as Coln St. Aldwyn).

<sup>104</sup> That Thomas was a son of Nicholas Webb is confirmed by the fact that he was recorded as a brother of Caroline Webb (no. 66) in the 1881 census returns for Quenington (RG 11/2558, f71).

<sup>105</sup> That James was a son of Nicholas Webb is shown by the fact that Dorcas Fanny Webb, his daughter, was recorded as a niece of Caroline Webb (no. 66) in the 1861 census returns for Quenington (RG 9/1785, f74).

<sup>113</sup> There is some inconsistency in the years of birth implied by various census returns and by Caroline's burial entry.

- 24 REBECCA WEBB was baptised on 3 Oct 1791 at Stow and buried there on 17 Jun 1831. She married on 2 Dec 1813 at Stow, THOMAS COX<sup>114</sup> of Woodstock, Oxfordshire and of Stow, coal merchant and land surveyor.
